DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the “a height of the virtual screen is varied ... the keystone distortion in the virtual screen updating step” as claimed in claim 18 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

Art Unit: 2622

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

3. The lengthy specification has not been fully checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

4. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

On page 13, line 13, "59" should be --57--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

5. Claim 16 is objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 16, line 2, after "comprising", --the steps of-- should be inserted in order to provide proper antecedent basis for the steps claimed in claims 17 and 18.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 2622

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. "a height of the virtual screen is varied ... the keystone distortion in the virtual screen updating step" as claimed in claim 18 is not described in the specification. It is unclear how the height of the virtual screen is varied according to variation of a virtual screen functional value of the keystone distortion. Applicant must clarify the above matter.

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 11 recites the limitation "the distortion information extracting means" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It seems that the dependency is incorrect. "8" should be --9--.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 8, 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Shikama (6288689).

As to claim 8, Shikama discloses the claimed subject matter, the claimed digital video signal processing means is met by the A/D conversion circuit 6 (Fig. 1, column 5 lines 1-3), the claimed inverse-distortion information generating means is met by the S-shape correcting circuit 8 (Fig. 1, column 5 lines 5-13), the claimed memory means is met by the first frame memory 10 and the second frame memory 11 (Fig. 1), the claimed inverse-distortion processing means is met by the inverse-distorted image creating means 14 (Fig. 1) and the claimed image projecting means is met by the two-directional display element 1 (Fig. 1) (see Fig. 1, column 5 lines 1-38).

As to claims 11 and 12, the claimed limitations are disclosed by Shikama (Figs. 2A, 2B, 2C, Figs. 3-5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shikama (6288689).

As to the claimed memory means uses a SRAM, the examiner takes Official Notice that the SRAM is well known and widely used in the art for storing the data, and therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Shikama by using the SRAM to high speed store the data.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claim 9 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

11. Claims 1-7, 13-17 and 19-21 are allowable over prior art.

Art Unit: 2622

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Chen (6491400) discloses a keystone distortion correction in a digital image displayed by a digital projector.
